Glossary

Right-of-Way (Published)

🔗 [Public]/Glossary/Right-of-Way

| Overview | Settings | Links | History |

[Update] [Preview]

Page name

Right-of-Way

Glossary (Required)   58 Characters left

Right-of-Way

Glossary description (Required)   169 Characters left

The area of land the City uses for transportation and utility needs. It extends from the property line on one side of the street to the property line on the other side of the street. Typically, it's one foot back from the sidewalk.

Template Name

OC Default

Content Type : OC Glossary
Status : Published
Owned by : Zachary Thiel
Last edited by : Zachary Thiel

🇺🇸 English (United States) (default)
    Last edited by Zachary Thiel

🇪🇸 Spanish (Latin America)
    Not created

[Delete Version]

[Update] [Roll Back] [Preview]

---

our Driveway Permit applications. If you've never used Citizen Access, we recommend that you review how to create an account before starting your application.

② Make sure you have time to apply

This application will take about 20 minutes once you've gathered the required information identified in the steps below. You'll be able to save your application and resume later if you need more time.

③ Review the requirements

All work in the right-of-way , including curb, gutter, driveway approach/apron, and sidewalk must be per...

RIGHT-OF-WAY

The area of land the City uses for transportation and utility needs. It extends from the property line on one side of the street to the property line on the other side of the street. Typically, it's one foot back from the sidewalk.

Clic... ...ewalks contractors

If yo... ...larger development pro... ...ermit, this Driveway Permit Application is not required.

④ Plan your driveway

During the application process you will need to upload a site drawing showing new or expanded driveway. Include the exact locations and dimensions of all of these features:

- Property lines

Right-of-Way (Published)

🔗 [Public]/Glossary/Right-of-Way

Overview | Settings | Links | History

Update | Preview

Page name

Right-of-Way

Glossary (Required)   58 Characters left

Right-of-Way

Glossary description (Required)   169 Characters left

The area of land the City uses for transportation and utility needs. It extends from the property line on one side of the street to the property line on the other side of the street. Typically, it's one foot back from the sidewalk.

Template Name

OC Default

Content Type : OC Glossary
Status : Published
Owned by : Zachary Thiel
Last edited by : Zachary Thiel

🇺🇸 English (United States) (default)
Last edited by Zachary Thiel

🇪🇸 Spanish (Latin America)
Not created

Delete Version

Update | Roll Back | Preview

---

our Driveway Permit applications. If you've never used Citizen Access, we recommend that you review how to create an account before starting your application.

2 Make sure you have time to apply

This application will take about 20 minutes once you've gathered the required information identified in the steps below. You'll be able to save your application and resume later if you need more time.

3 Review the requirements

All work in the right-of-way , including curb, gutter, driveway approach/apron, and sidewalk must be pe

RIGHT-OF-WAY

The area of land the City uses for transportation and utility needs. It extends from the property line on one side of the street to the property line on the other side of the street. Typically, it's one foot back from the sidewalk.

Clic   ewalks contractors

If yo   larger development pro   ermit, this Driveway Permit Application is not required.

4 Plan your driveway

During the application process you will need to upload a site drawing showing new or expanded driveway. Include the exact locations and dimensions of all of these features:

• Property lines